

The
Yough-a-Mon
1944

THE
YOUTH * A * MON

McKEESPORT HIGH SCHOOL
McKEESPORT, PENNSYLVANIA

1 9 4 4
VOLUME 27

"I pledge Allegiance . . .

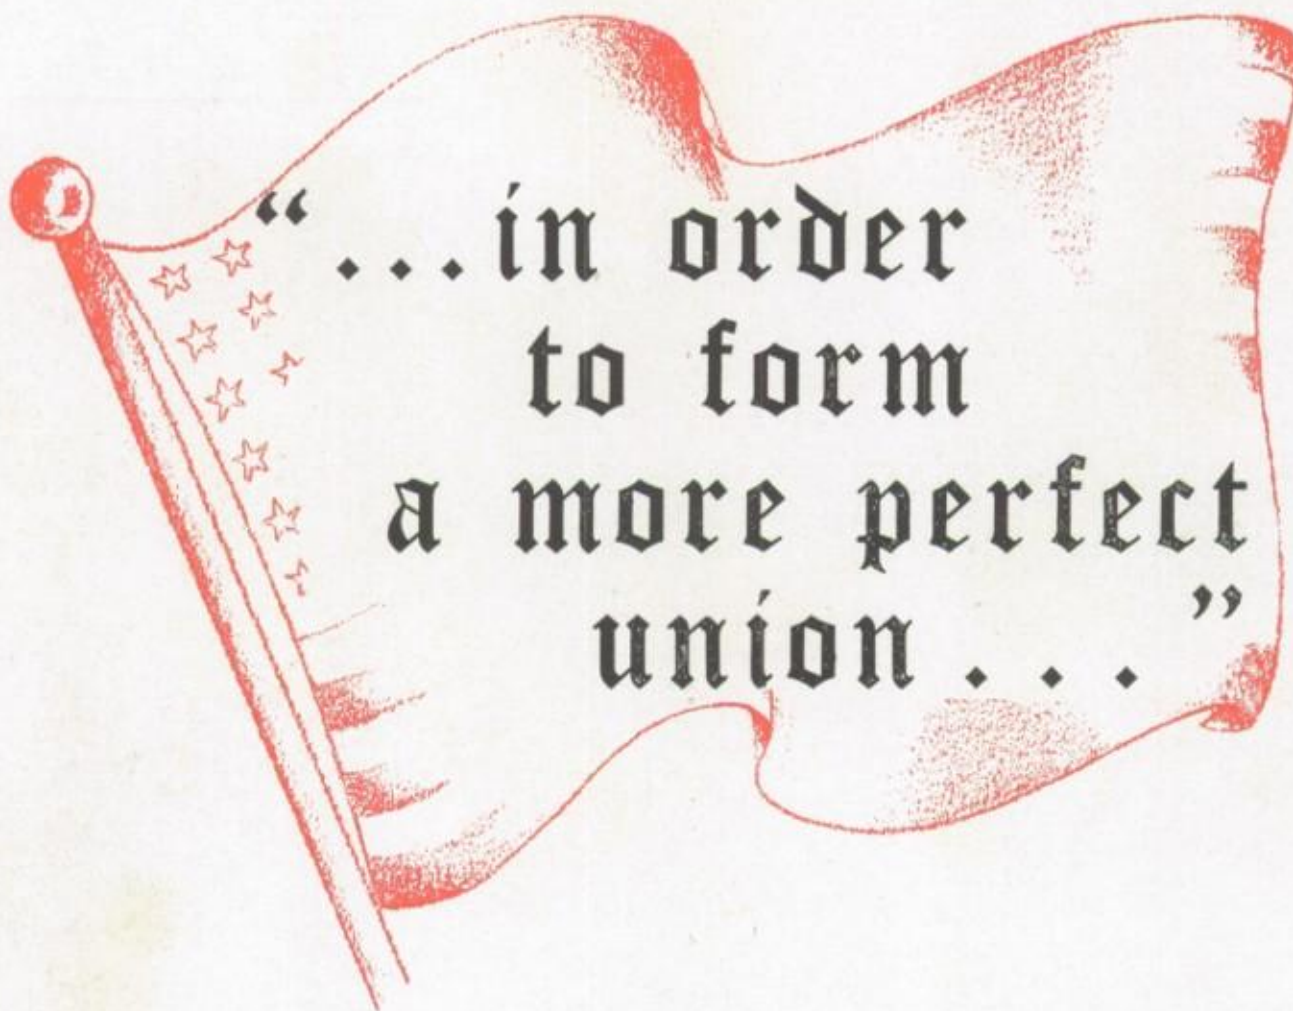

. . . to the flag." It is these words which thrill and inspire us at the beginning of each chapel, words which will never be forgotten in the heart of any American, young or old, who repeats them. Seeing those proud stars and stripes gently swaying before us makes us realize that the promise of liberty and justice for all will prevail against all the forces of evil in the world.

DEDICATION

We,
the students of McKeesport High School
do dedicate this 1944 "Yough-a-Mon"
to those who framed our Constitution,
to those
who have kept our nation
a union,

indivisible, with liberty for all,
to those who are today
fighting for democracy,
fighting to uphold the precepts which are the precious heritage of an American.

Down these steps come the future taxpayers of McKeesport

Autos chugged and horns bleated on Cornell Street, while we wended
our way to school

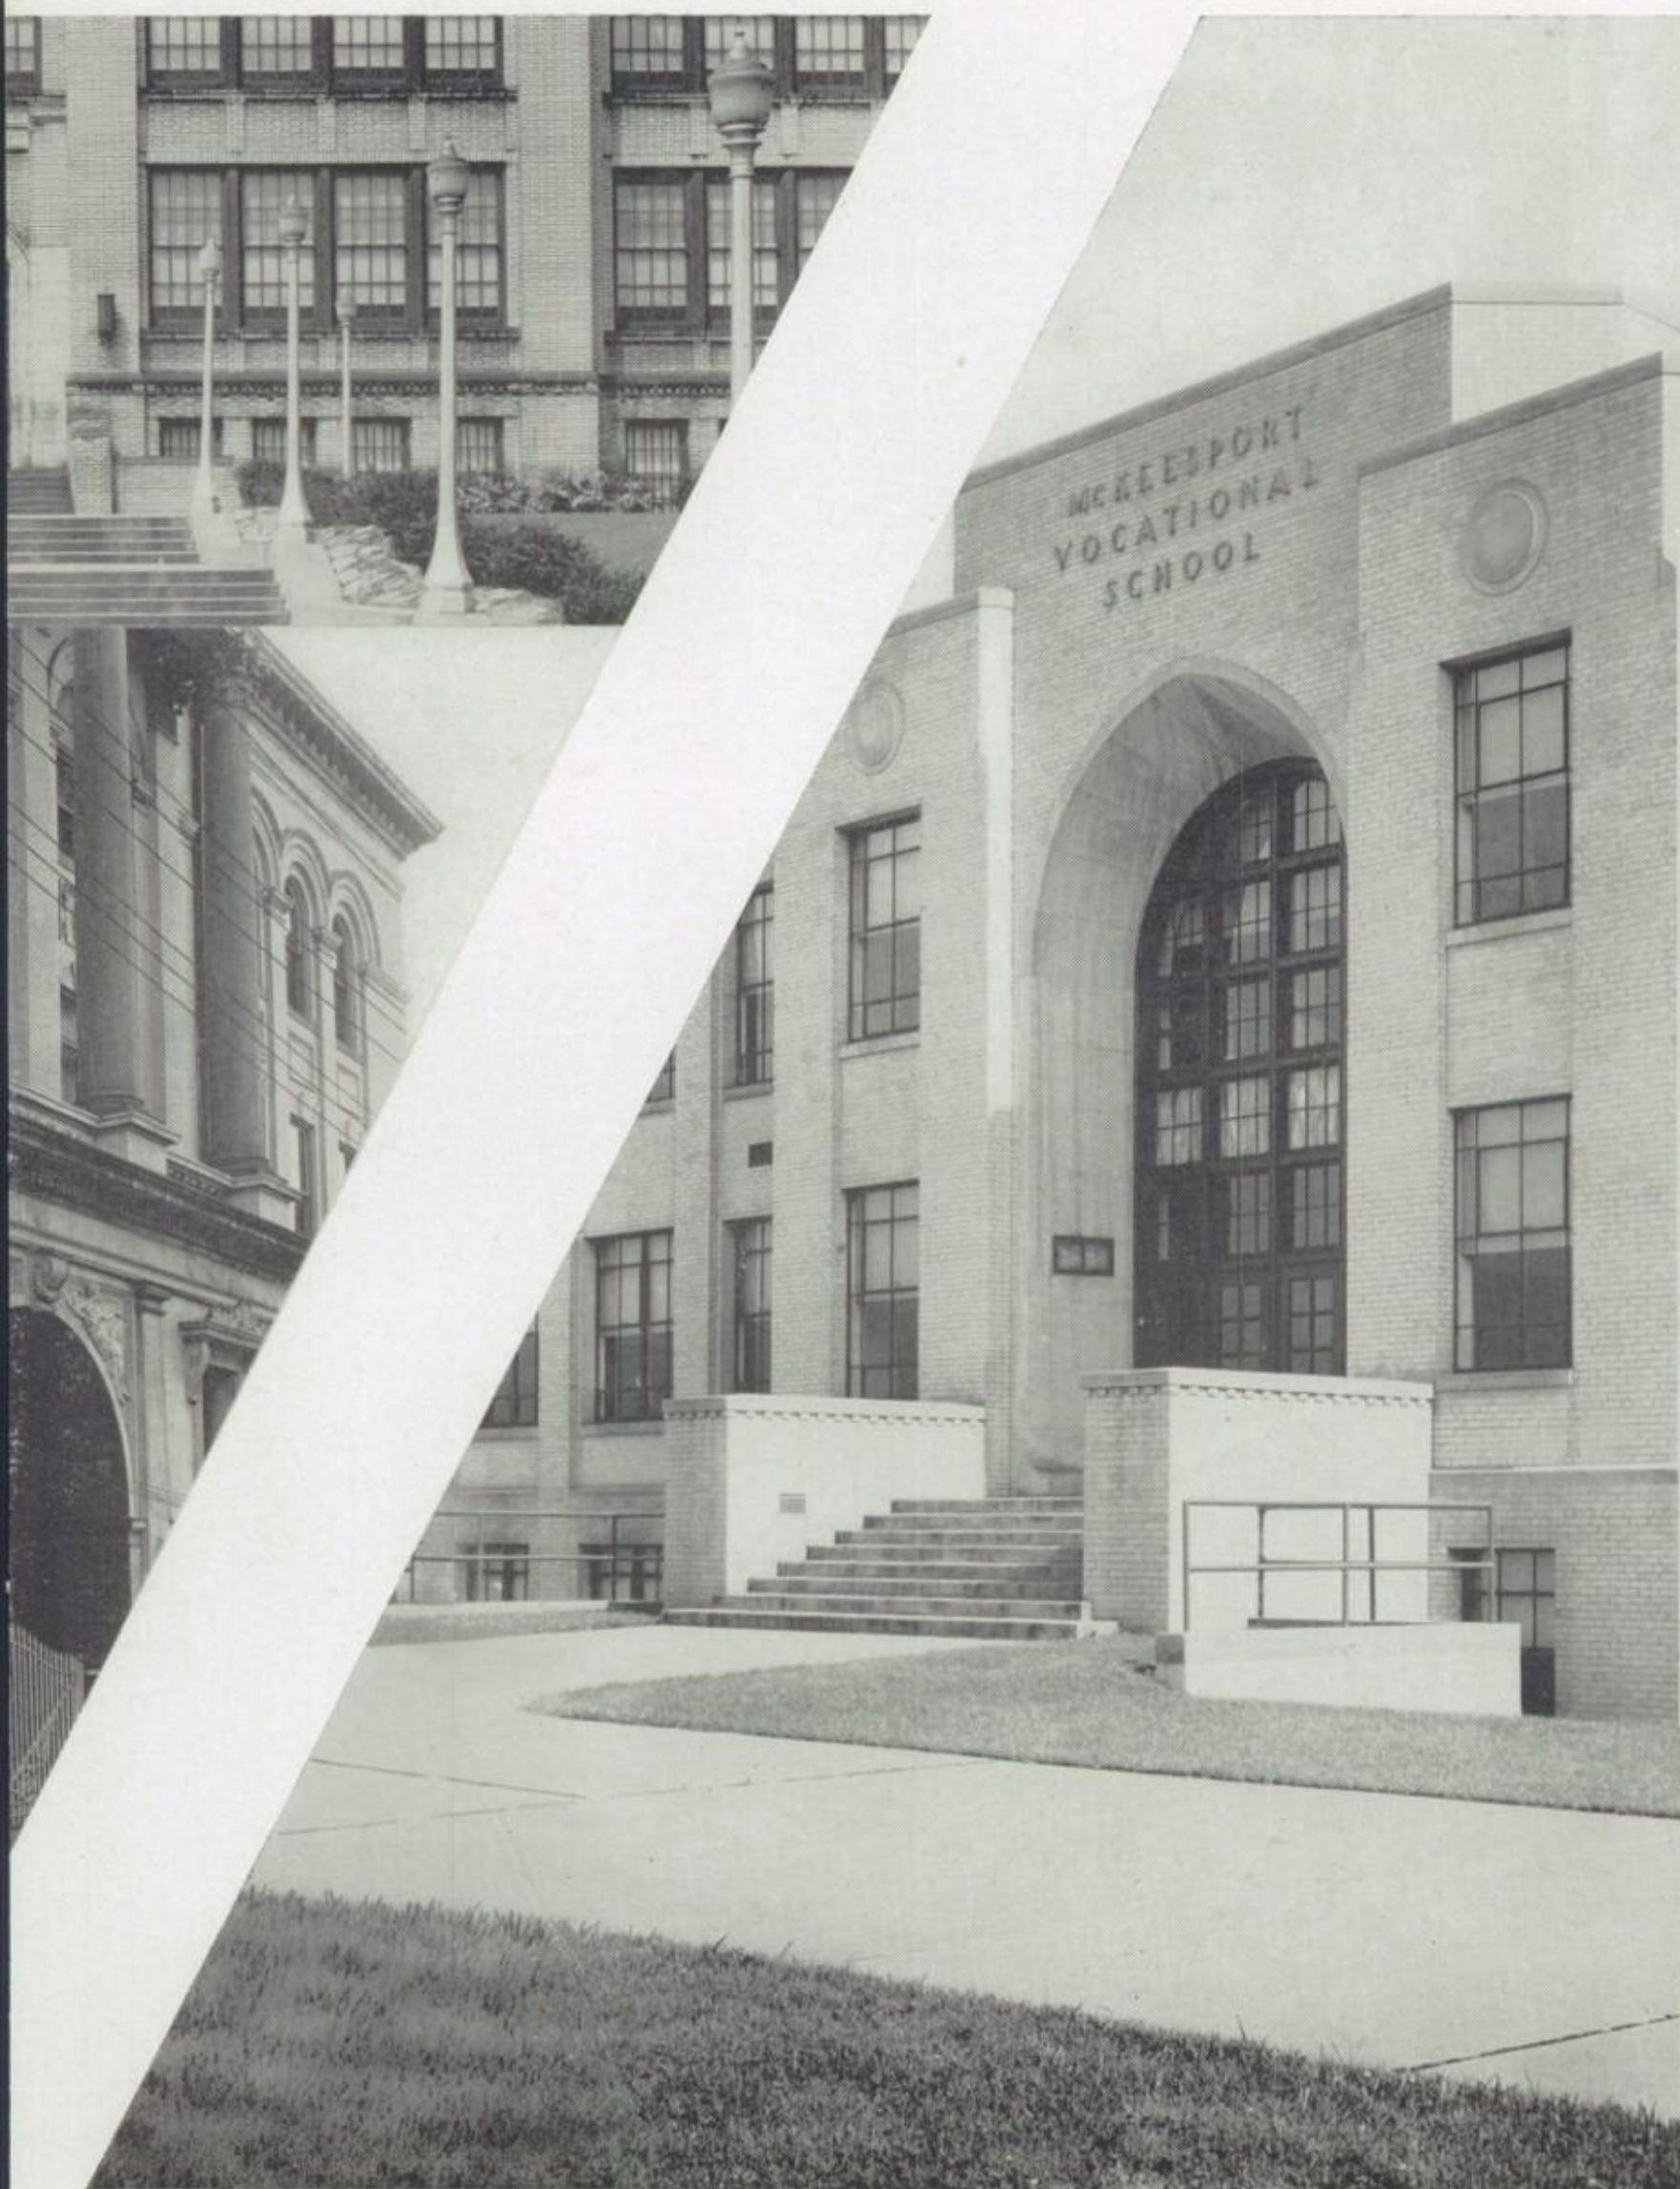

Baseballers and pigskinners have hung up their spikes and cleats, and snow covers the turf they loosened.

*These are the buildings; let me review the scenes,
And summon from the shadowy past
The forms which once have been.*

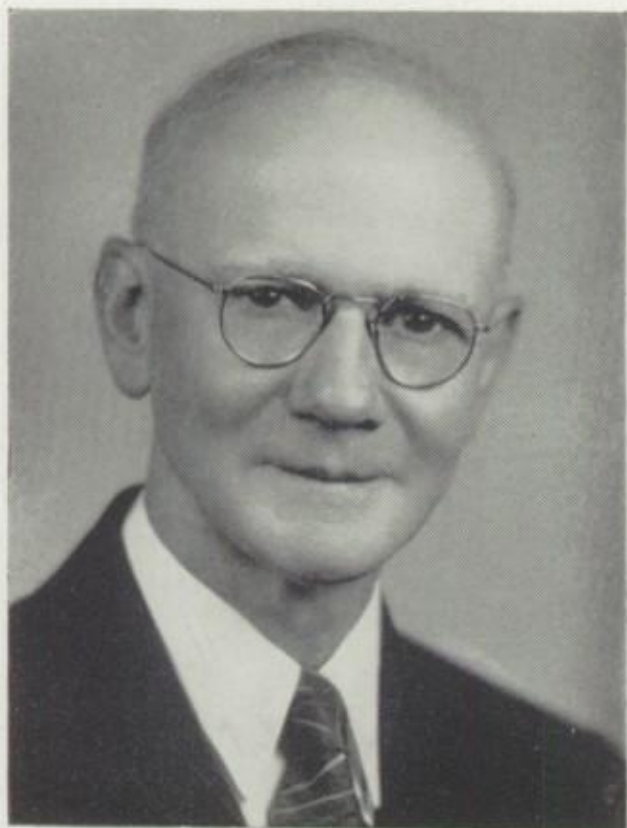

*Oh, how we shall miss all the chats in these halls,
And the beauty and grace of these stately white walls.*

It's hard to be a "just man".
It's not born in us—this sense of justice—
or all the world would be just.
They say
there is but one door to the citadel of liberty,
and knowledge is its key.
It's in our schools where youth acquires knowledge and sees justice.
It's in our schools where we—the youth of America—learn.
Yet, schools in themselves are nothing but bricks and stone, blackboards, bare walls, and hard desks.

It's the pupils that go there, and the parents who rear them, and the teachers who teach them.
It's all of them
who make the schools, live and flourish and bear fruit.
It's here in McKeesport, here
and there in other schools, where we
rub off the rough edges, learn to regard the rights of others
and to respect righteous laws.
It is in our schools
where the battle for democracy
is being won.

Seniors! Don't go!
Three years is too short to make friends
and leave them!
We've just begun to know you,
and now you're going to leave!
We'll miss you, your "hello's" and "hi's",
and the things you have done,
and the way you have done them.
What's your hurry?

We can't stay!
The world is waiting for us!
We really don't want to go.
We'll miss standing around the building,
or walking down Cornell every noon.
We'll miss being secretary of this,
or treasurer of that,
or just belonging to this and that.
We'll miss a lot of things
We have never thought about before.
We just can't stay!

We'll have a lot to keep us busy.
We're going to meet something called Life!
There's destiny waving a hand
to us around the corner,
down a road ahead of us.
We'll keep that road open so that other children can open our books, sing our songs, and finish the jobs we didn't have time for.

We will not let you down,
You true defenders of our country.
We're going to pick up our load,
And shoulder our responsibility.
It is up to us to keep America American.
Everywhere, bulletins call us
to salvage newspapers,
magazines, and metals.
Everywhere we read
"Your Country Needs You",
"Keep Fit."
"Buy Savings Stamps and Bonds."
Constantly, we are challenged to do our part intelligently.
By mastering our studies now
we can become better citizens for America, for the world.

We are going to apply ourselves
to geometry, chemistry,
social problems, and physics,
for, soon, we'll be the engineers, chemists, statesmen, to steer our Ship of State safely and courageously.
And you,
General MacArthur,
and General Eisenhower,
we're not going to let you down.
We're going to hold fast
to that precious heritage
our Boys are preserving for us.
We stand ready,
with "Old Glory" waving o'er us,
to help Uncle Sam
to defend the home front.

Play ball!
 Let's go!
 Hold that line!
 These chants come loud
 and clear and strong from ten thousand husky throats;
 from ten thousand healthy and very-much-alive young bodies, all waiting anxiously while a future Red Grange or a Tommy Harmon sets himself to get that pigskin over for a touchdown waiting breathlessly
 to see a Billy Nicholson or a Rudy York
 "clout a homer" with the bases full

Youth,
 resolute and sturdy,
 learning to play the game fair;
 not only the game of football,
 or golf, or basketball, or baseball—
 but a much bigger game for keeps,
 A game called Life!

Youth,
 well-balanced, alert, eager,
 learning to work and play together,
 not forgetting that
 some day, not too far away,
 it will be our job to provide for the common defense.

We're going to be ready!

The 1943 football season is history, but its memory will linger on. It was McKeesport's best season since 1938. The new coaching staff, consisting of Head Coach Weigle and his assistants, Schaeffer, Vargo, and Clees, developed an alert, fast-charging team around lettermen Al Kovacic, Joe Jenkins, Roy Slack, and Francis Saunders. How well the boys were coached may be readily seen by their having won nine games out of ten played. The only defeat we sustained came at the hands of the Clairton Bears, who, later in the season, were defeated by Duquesne, a team that McKeesport had defeated handily earlier in the fall. The season as a whole was a decided success, and reflected great credit on both the coaches and the team. This splendid record, we hope, is but a prelude to greater achievements next fall.

SCOTT

A well-drilled McKeesport High football eleven made its debut September 10 with a 30 to 6 triumph over a weak North Braddock Varsity under the lights of the Scott High stadium. Scott's fumbles aided the Tigers to roll to a four-touchdown advantage in the first two periods of play. Kovacic, Liptak, Tkac, Brown were outstanding for McKeesport. Kirschnew stood out prominently for Scott.

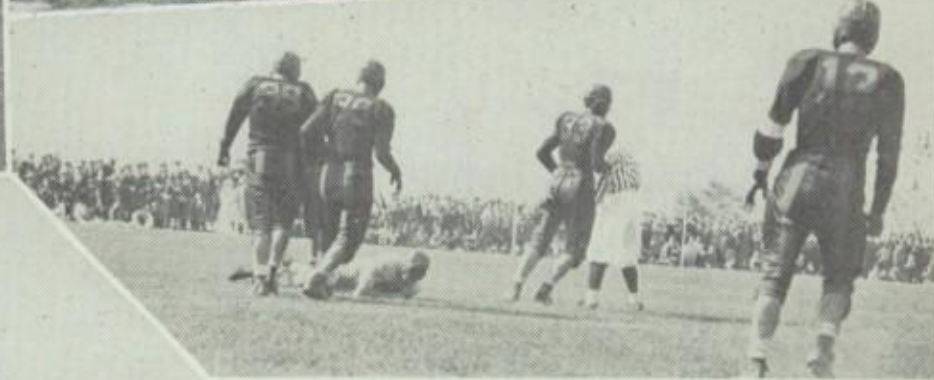

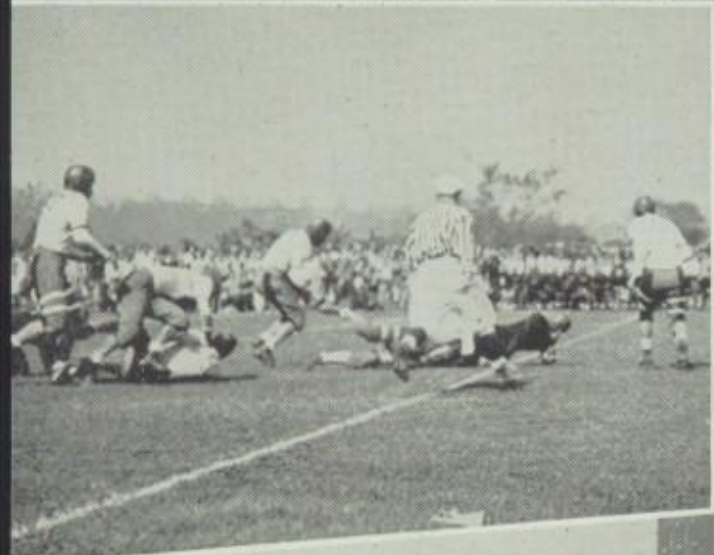

DUQUESNE

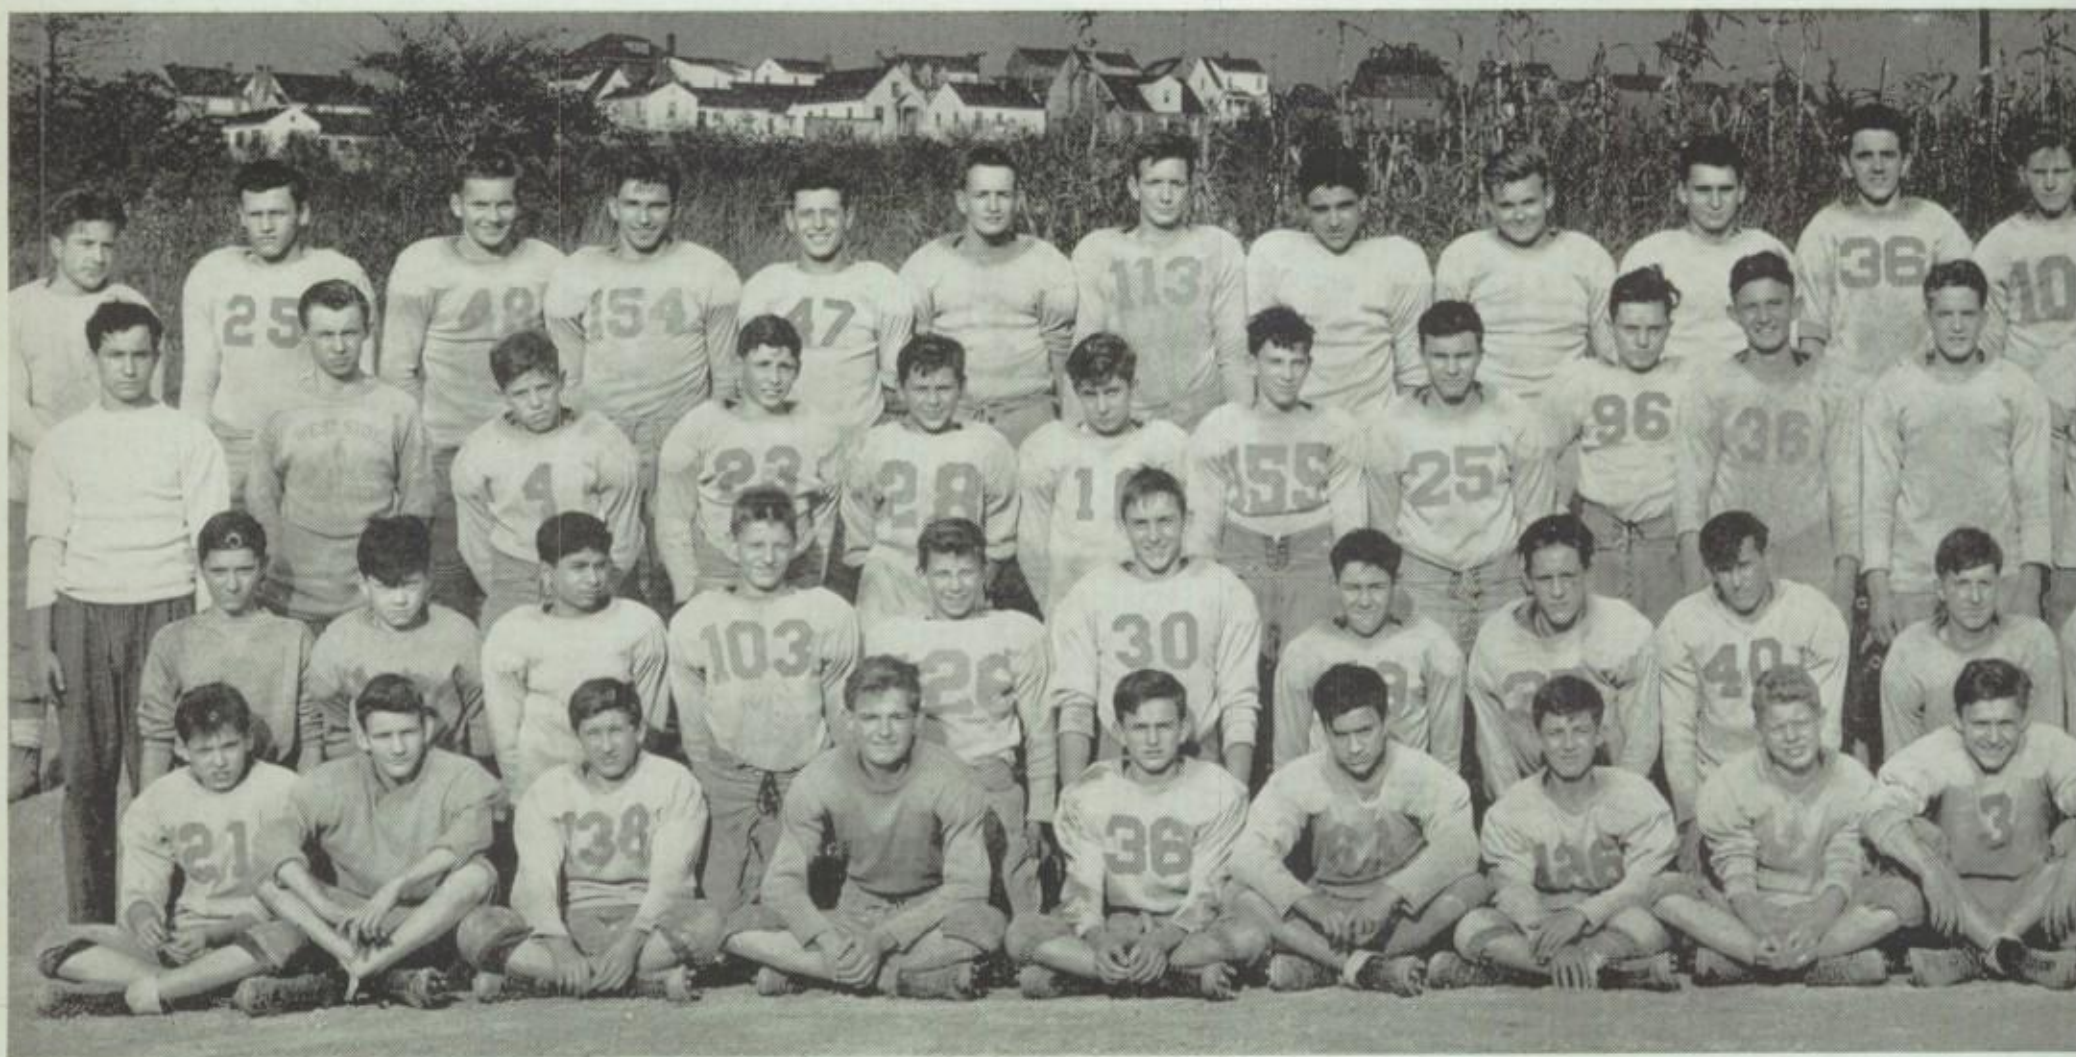

A resourceful McKeesport team, alert to every scoring opportunity, won a decisive 25 to 7 victory over its traditional Duquesne High rival before a capacity crowd of 7000 spectators at the Dukes' home stadium. Touchdowns were registered in each quarter by the Tigers. Duquesne's lone tally came late in the fourth period. White's 75 yard return of a punt was the feature of the game. Kovacic's passing and Tkac's line plunging were also highlights of the game. Genito was the star performer for Duquesne.

JOHNSTOWN

The following week McKeesport scored a decisive victory over Johnstown High by a 13 to 0 score. The Tigers, using the same lineup that had already defeated Scott and Duquesne, proved too strong for the Trojans. Beattie and Liptak, aided by the skilful passing of Kovacic, accounted for the first touchdown. Kovacic, Brown, and Tkac collaborated for the second score. Reynolds was Johnstown's outstanding player.

Varsity

First Row—Don Davis, Bob McIntyre, Fred Slusher, Bob Luge, Ed. Lutes, James Smyrnes, Bruce Butrym, Ed. Brown, Ed. Bracken.

Second Row—Harvey Symons, Assistant Student Manager, Jack Sellers, Bill Thomas, William Lawson, Pete Grasak, Harold Gillespie, Louis Benton, Harry Smith, Matthew Stokan, Joe Geyer, Lawrence Bjornberg.

CLAIRTON

A powerful, alert, and resourceful Clairton High football team ran, passed, and plunged their way to a crushing 33 to 0 victory over McKeesport. More than 10,000 spectators saw an amazing exhibition of scholastic football. Lamendola, Hoey, and Grimenstein played remarkable football. Hairston scored three points by placements. All in all, Clairton had too much power for the local lads.

WASHINGTON

Tiger passes, tossed by the redoubtable Kovacic, netted the locals a well-earned 25 to 12 victory over Washington High. The game, played on Washington's gridiron, brought the Tigers their first victory over Washington. Poor punting by Washington kickers greatly aided our offensive tactics. Kovacic, Tkac, and Klasnic scored touchdowns for McKeesport. Thomas and Smith accounted for Washington's points.

NEW KENSINGTON

McKeesport High scored a 13 to 7 victory over a favored New Kensington team. Al Kovacic scored two touchdowns. Tkac's fine punting helped in our triumph. A rain-soaked War Memorial field slowed up the game greatly, and caused numerous fumbles. A dry field might have told a different story, for New Kensington had a classy pass combination. McKeesport suffered its first football casualty—Francis Saunders, valuable on both offense and defense, suffered a fractured collarbone.

HAR-BRAC

McKeesport High defeated an unexpectedly powerful Har-Brac eleven, 14 to 7, in a thrilling hard-fought battle on War Memorial field. The Tigers were decisively outplayed throughout the first half, when Har-Brac went out in front by a 7 to 0 margin. But, in the second half, the Weiglemen played their best brand of football of 1943 to score 14 points. Tkac's punting was outstanding. He also scored two points after touchdowns registered by Liptak and Klasnic. Kovacic's passing figured prominently in setting up the scores. Chatak was Har-Brac's best ground gainer.

JEANNETTE

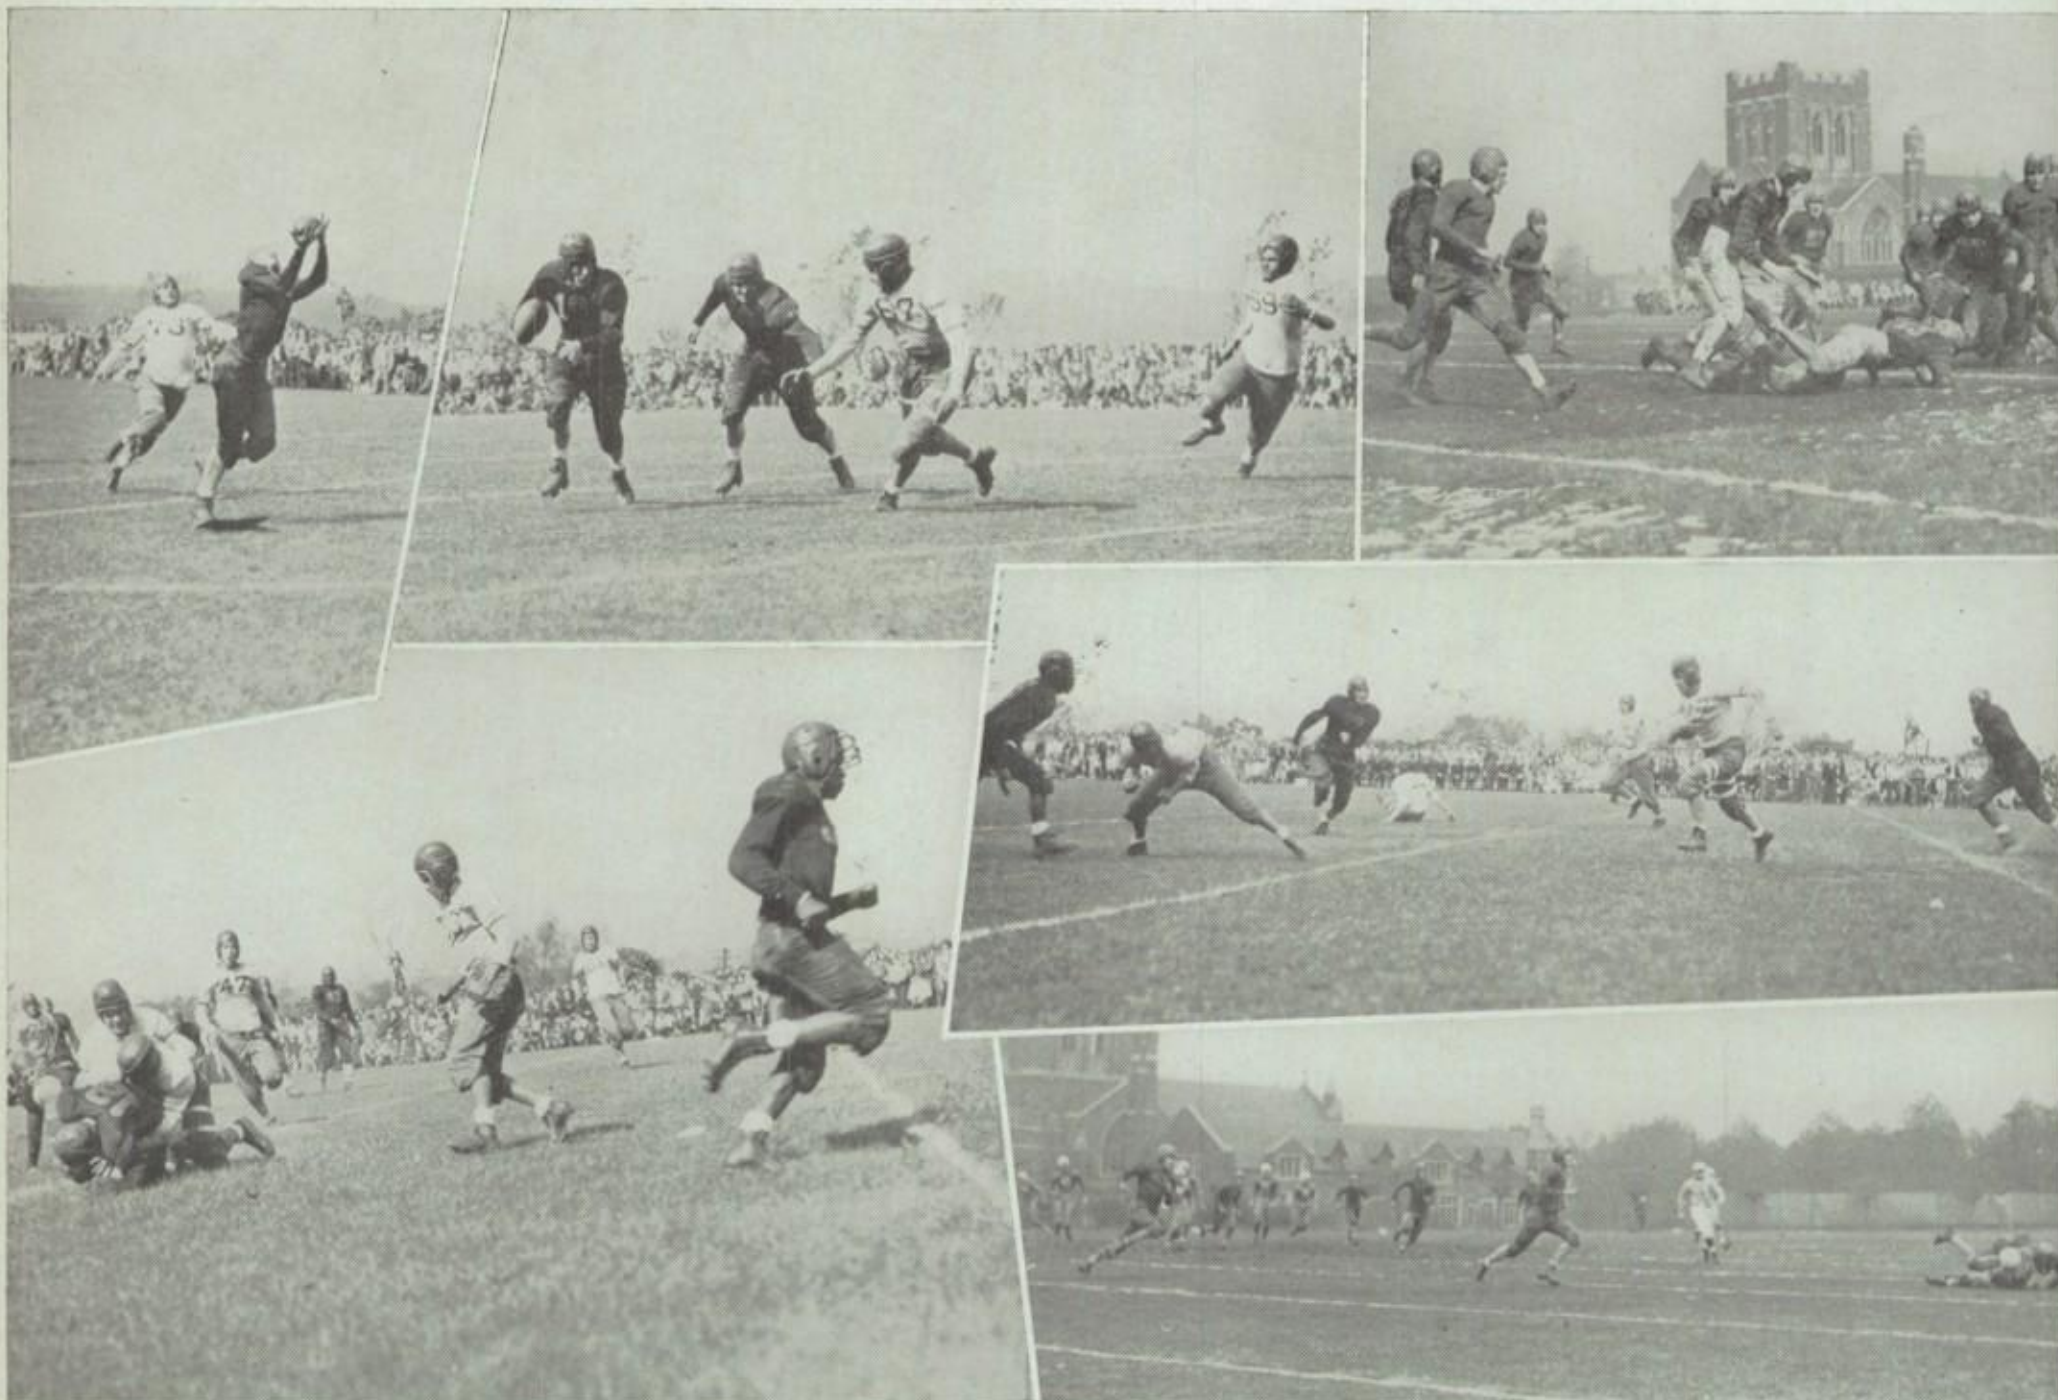

The Tigers proved too strong for Jeannette High. They scored three touchdowns in the first half. In the second half, Coach Weigle used the Reserves almost entirely. And the Reserves did a fine job. Lipovic was on an 88 yard run, when he dropped the ball. Superior blocking was a feature of the game. Kovacic scored two touchdowns. Tkac registered the third one. No points were made after touchdown.

SCHENLEY

The Tigers easily defeated Schenley High, Pittsburgh's city champions. Somehow, the strong T-formation aggregation from Schenley failed to overpower McKeesport. Kovacic's passing to Beattie set up the third touchdown, after Klasnic had scored the first two touchdowns. Schenley scored one touchdown and a safety. The final score was 20 to 8.

GLASSPORT

Glassport, class B co-champions, was no match for the aggressive Tigers, who scored 24 points. The Reserves played the greater part of the second half. The first touchdown came as the result of a 30 yard pass from Kovacic to Liptak. From that time on, Glassport was almost completely outclassed. The most thrilling incident of the game was Kovacic's 75 yard punt return. This brilliant run was nullified because of an offside penalty.

1943 BASEBALL SQUAD

ALBERT T. FALLQUIST, Coach

McKeesport's diamond squad had a highly-successful season. Coach Fallquist's boys lost only one game during the regular schedule. This game brought about a three way tie for the section championship. In a play-off game with Duquesne, McKeesport lost 3 to 1. Duquesne, in a later game, defeated Turtle Creek for the sectional championship.

The locals got off to a fine start by defeating Turtle Creek Union 4 to 1. The next four games resulted in well-earned victories for the Tigers. The first game with Duquesne was a thrilling 1 to 0 victory for McKeesport. The locals needed but one game to clinch the section banner, but Duquesne's pitching proved too much for McKeesport. This 5 to 4 loss necessitated the play-off with Duquesne.

The prospects for this spring looked bright. The Coach had the following lettermen back for the diamond struggles:

David Bowland, Chester Brown, Emil Krzan, Robert Phillips, Albert Tkac.

Promising material included:

Lionel Caldwell, Pete Demase, David Hughes, Walter Parucha, Cyril Patrick, Roy Slack.

Our America is singing!
In her schools and colleges,
on her streets and in her camps,
on her wheatfields and on her ships,
because of her sweet Liberty,
our America is singing.
In the rising and falling music,
listen to the mortal strife,
as once again freedom fights lest the hard-won standard of Liberty perish for all ages.
Listen to the song of men toiling with heart and brain and soul to share the liberty of living under a government
"of the people, by the people, and for the people."
A day is near, we pray,
when men schooled in working and playing together shall help their brothers join hands around the world, so that the torch of liberty shall light earth's remotest corner,
and its flame shall warm the fire-side of every home.

We, the students of McKeesport High,
shall hold fast to the torch of Liberty, which, under God, shall brighten
the darkness of this world;
Some day, we'll bequeathe it with pride
to our children,
as our fathers did to us.

DEBATING ACTIVITIES

Early last fall, William S. Tacey, debating coach, met students interested in debating as their extra-curricular activity. Within a few weeks, the debate club, headed by Sam Byer, became a vital factor in school and city activities. Because of travel difficulties, McKeesport High School, a member of both the National Forensic League and the Pennsylvania Music and Forensic League, did not participate in interscholastic debates.

To maintain the fine interest in debating the high school has shown in former years, Mr. Tacey arranged for numerous audience debates. These debates were staged before fraternal groups, service clubs, educational organizations, and church societies. The subject for debate was, "Resolved: That the United States should join in reconstituting the League of Nations." The debaters, headed by Sam Myer, Ella Lou Hoyt, Milton Xides, Marjorie Curry, clearly demonstrated their grasp of the subject and their ability to carry on successful debating.

Late in January, the local debate club was host to thirteen schools participating in a district debate tournament. Approximately 115 students, coaches, and teachers were present. Schools represented, besides McKeesport, included Monessen High; St. Vincent's, Latrobe; Edgewood High; St. Wendelin, Pittsburgh; Bentleyville; Charleroi; Munhall; Donora; Ambridge; Hurst Township, Mt. Pleasant; West View Borough; Saint George's, Pittsburgh.

All in all, the debate club provided speakers for several public occasions. The members made favorable contacts in our community. They have learned much about current events.

"A MIND OF HER OWN"

A Comedy in Three Acts

by

ANNE FERRING WEATHERLY

The senior play cast, under the dynamic direction of August M. Schad, dramatic coach, cleverly presented the amusing comedy, "A Mind of Her Own," in the high school auditorium May 18 and 19.

The plot of the comedy, which was produced for the first time by the University High School, University of Missouri, is highlighted by the futile efforts of Bunny Bartlett to imitate her friends' personalities rather than her own. These mirth-provoking antics almost cause her to lose her "one man." They almost queer a big deal for her father; they create a pandemonium of tension and laughter.

Throughout the major part of the play, Bunny attempts to imitate everybody. At no time, does she try to be herself. Naturally enough, the family is in a dither of trouble. A guest, who is a very important factor in a big deal her father is making, arrives to confer with the father. At the same time, Jessica, Bunny's guest, comes in to pose as a blase woman-of-the-world. Bunny starts to imitate Jessica. She is quite unaware that Jessica is tricking her out of her good friend Steve. Jessica proves to be so downright impossible that Tommie and Nettie lay plans to get rid of her—they'll get her to sit on a hot pad, trip over a string, and have flour cascade on her head. In the meantime, the guest, on whom Bunny's father's business venture depends, is most unfavorably impressed by the uproarious antics of the family. To enhance this unfavorable opinion, Jessica misinterprets a cancelled check which seems to indicate that the father is bankrupt. Bunny, taking her cue from Jessica, stakes everything on an emotional appeal on the guest that her father is bankrupt, but, that this deal will reestablish his financial standing. The whole up-shot is that the guest sits on the hot pad, gets flour on her head. Naturally, the deal is off.

Then Bunny comes to herself—and a delightful and very real self it is—when she finally discovers her true personality. And the play comes to a highly-pleasing conclusion.

ALUMNI NEWS

In this issue of "The Yough-a-Mon," the alumni editors have listed the roll of the class of 1943 by courses. They have continued the inclusion of Graduates-in-Arms. The list herein given is really a continuation of the list published in the 1943 yearbook. The editors have used every possible means to make the new list complete.

The editors have also run pictures of the alumni in service, as far as they were able to secure these pictures. In loving memory, they also present the names and data of those who have paid the supreme sacrifice—of those who have been reported missing in action. Earnestly, we hope that "these honored dead shall not have died in vain."
